Since SCOX and other anonymous users are currently the subjects of an FBI investigation and investigation by the US Attorneys Office into the break in the the Nation Credit Union Association (NCUA) by anonymous Internet identities who hacked and used Plaintiff's servers to commit these acts, and since Plaintiff has brought criminal complaints against those persons who have posted death threats, they are dismissed without prejudice pending the outcome of these criminal investigations, and to prevent the civil action from impeding the efforts of the United States and local State investigators to prosecute and investigate these individuals.

DATED this 23 day of August, 2005.
